

2008 Stakeholder Training Plan

Existing MRTU class status in 2008

Class	Availability
Level 100	Computer Based training will remain available on the website
Level 200	DVD's were made available to every SC, no more additional Instructor lead
Bid To Bill Classes	Are currently being converted to Computer Based Training, available by mid March
Level 300	Computer Based training will remain available on the website

New Classes associated with MRTU

Class	Goal:
MRTU Refresher Classes: Topics the ISO is considering: Bid to Bill Examples Market Design Lite: overview of the Market Settlements Validation of Charge Codes InterSC Trades CRR's in the Day Ahead Market ADS RA in the CAISO Nodal Market	Each month we will offer a new refresher class. This class will be web based training and 2-4 hours in length. It will be offered 2-3 times during the month, and then a new class will start the following month.

Classes Available prior to MRTU Go Live, but containing post MRTU content

Class	Goal:
Overview Classes	Convert Existing level 100 computer based classes to post MRTU content and re-record as CBT's
SC certification Market Workshop	Intended for SC Certification Anticipated to be available Q3 and Q4 On site, hands on, limited seating to new applicants Anticipated to be 4 days Will incorporate Level 200 and Bid to Bill classes together
Market Workbook Course	Intended for SC Certification On Line Pre-requisite for Market Workshop Will be self paced to introduce market concept and participant will look up the topic and answer questions associated with the concept presented Will be available to all participants
Advanced Settlements concepts	Will create Computer Based modules for Advance Settlements concepts by Parent Charge code groups
Market Proficiency test	Under design. Required for SC Certification.